AMUSEMENTS

CONSTANCE BINNEY AT THE BUTLER TODAY

There have been chorus girls and chorus girls depicted on the screen, and invariably they have been of the same type—beautiful, seductive creatures, gowned in the latest Parisian fashion, leading a prize dog on the leash, with a host of millionaires ever at their feet clamoring to give them all their hearts desire. Constance Binney creates a new type of chorus girl in her portrayal of Penelope Penn in "33 East," the Rachel Crothers play which will be shown at the Butler today. Miss Binney, delightfully herself, sweet and demure, portrays the role of a daughter of a poor minister, who has been brought up in a careful though old-fashioned manner, and goes to the city to make her fortune. Contrary to the story of most chorus girls, it was only after she failed to obtain other employment that she was forced to utilize her church choir training in the ranks of the chorus. However, association with the sophisticated "gold diggers" of the chorus did not taint Penelope and even when she became a premier danseuse she remained a sweet and wholesome girl. It is conceded to be Miss Binney's best picture, and she has made some good ones before.

Added to the feature will be a two reel Bennett comedy, "Let 'Er Go," making a very attractive program.

Monday and Tuesday, for two days "Humorogue," the picture that was the talk of San Francisco for five weeks.

MINES MAKE BIG BULLION SHIPMENTS

During the week the regular mid-month bullion shipments were made by the mines of the Tonopah district covering the first half of October. The Belmont shipment was 41 bars weighing 81,000 ounces of an approximate value of $89,100. The West End during the first half of the month produced 22 bars of a value of approximately $46,000 and the Tonopah Extension shipment was 23 bars weighing 44,235 ounces, of a value of $49,900.

FROM ALL REPORTS HE WAS

Editor Bonanza:—In connection with the attacks upon the labor record of Tasker L. Oddie, why do not the Democrats examine the labor record of Mr. Henderson? Is it not a fact that Mr. Henderson, during the greatest railroad strike that ever took place in this country, served in the capacity of strike-breaker on a Southern Pacific locomotive? Very truly yours,

"WORKINGMAN."

ASSEMBLY CANDIDATE UNDERGOES OPERATION

Fred Fall, Republican candidate for member of the assembly in Mineral county, is recovering at Mt. Rose hospital, Reno, from an operation for appendicitis performed Wednesday. Fall was compelled to abandon his campaign in Mineral county because of the attack of appendicitis. He was brought to Reno from Mina by R. A. Smith and other friends. He is employed in the store of Miller & Adams at Mina.

Location books are now for sale at The Bonanza office.
